Mrs. Starr Braun

Chilocco Welcomes Mrs. Starr Braun

By Verna Yellowhair

Chilocco Indian School would like to "Welcome" Mrs. Starr Braun to the dormitory staff.

Mrs. Braun works as a counselor for the special dorm. She is a member of the Cherokee Indian tribe, and is from Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Mrs. Braun was born in April so that puts her under the sign of Taurus. She's married to Russell Townsend and has one child.

Mrs. Braun attended school at Tahlequah Senior High and went on to study Education at Northeastern Oklahoma State University.

Her favorite food is Italian and pepsi to go along with it as a favorite drink. Starr likes to go boating and volleyball. Her pasttime is sewing. When asked what she thought and how she liked Chilocco she replied, "It is very interesting." We hope you enjoy your stay here at Chilocco.

Francis Kirkland, Welding Instructor Honor Alumnus

Mr. Francis Kirkland was born December 17, 1917, in Shawnee, Oklahoma of Potawatomi descent. The beginning five years of his education was spent in the Shawnee School system before transferring to Chilocco Indian School in the sixth grade. The remaining seven years were spent at Chilocco. Francis participated in football and was a member of the National Guard for three years.

Upon graduation, he attended Oklahoma State University, and Pittsburg State College in Pittsburg, Kansas, while taking summer classes at Wichita State University.

Francis later became a welder helper in Oklahoma City, where he worked for eight years, in addition to attending night classes at a nearby school. He then became (proficient enough) in welding to work with a welding construction team for twelve years.

With the onset of World War II, Francis served with the Army for one year, from which he became a Corporal in rank.

In 1940, he married June Tuggly of Pawhuska, Oklahoma, also a graduate of Chilocco Indian School of 1938. From this marriage, they later became parents of two children and are now the grandparents of five granddaughters and one grandson. A great grandson was recently born in California.

Francis has worked at Chilocco since 1959 as a Welding instructor.

He has been a member of the Chilocco Alumni Association for several years, in addition to serving as Vice-President and President of the association. In addition to his work in this organization, he lists his hobbies as fishing, hunting and bowling. bowling.

When asked how Chilocco Indian School had benefited him he replied, "I probably would not have received a high school education without it."

Employee of the Month

By Patti HeCrow

Mr. Jimmy Baker, Superintendent of Chilocco, has been selected as the Employee f the Month for his consideration and concern for Chilocco.

Jim was born December 21, 1940, in Talhina, Oklahoma. He attended his grade school years in Nashoba, Oklahoma. In his high school years he attended Clayton, Oklahoma schools and furthered his education here at Chilocco. ## CREATIVE WRITING

There is a time for real men to dream as well as mad men to dream. But the beautiful dreamer
Awakens to the real earth.

Spirit choking bars, motor cars.
Mad men's screams are mad mens dreams--dreamers lost in space.
While the real people shall inherit this beautiful earth--As the birds
who sing the beautiful dreamers Song.

The want for more guides me no more. To want more would be wrong.
For all things true under the sun
rightfully belongs to all people who will to do right--who will be Good people.
